V. Jesus, meek and humble of heart.

R. Make our hearts like to Thy Heart.

Let us pray: Almighty and eternal God, regard the Heart of Thy most beloved Son and upon the praises and satisfaction which He offereth Thee in the name of sinners; and to those who implore Thy mercy, in Thy great goodness, grant forgiveness in the name of the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee forever and ever. Amen.

ACT OF CONSECRATION

Lord Jesus Christ, I want to give myself to you completely. When I see your Sacred Heart, I reflect upon your love. You came from the Father taking a human body with a human heart. You taught us to love God with all our hearts. You suffered and died to save us from sin and death. As you hung on the cross, your Heart was pierced by a lance. Out of it poured blood and water to signify the birth of your Church.

You rose from the death, Jesus, to live forever with your Father in Heaven. But your Heart is still full of love for us. You still feel pain when people reject or ignore your love. You want us all to live forever with God.

I now consecrate myself to your Sacred Heart, Jesus. You are the Son of God whom I love with all my heart. I offer you my body, my soul, my mind, and my heart. Receive me, make me holy, make my heart like your Heart, and guide me in the way of perfect love today and every day of my life. Amen.

ACT OF REPARATION TO THE SACRED HEART

O sweetest Jesus, whose overflowing charity towards men is most ungratefully repaid by such great forgetfulness, neglect and contempt, see, prostrate before Thy altars, we strive by special honor to make amends for the wicked coldness of men and the contumely with which Thy most loving Heart is everywhere treated.

At the same time, mindful of the fact that we too have sometimes not been free from unworthiness, and moved therefore with most vehement sorrow, in the first place we implore Thy mercy on us, being prepared by voluntary expiation to make amends for the sins we have ourselves committed, and also for the sins of those who wander far from the way of salvation, whether because, being obstinate in their unbelief, they refuse to follow Thee as their shepherd and leader, or because, spurning the promises of their Baptism, they have cast off the most sweet yoke of Thy law. We now endeavor to expiate all these lamentable crimes together, and it is also our purpose to make amends for each one of them severally: for the want of modesty in life and dress, for impurities, for so many snares set for the minds of the innocent, for the violation of feast days, for the horrid blasphemies against Thee and Thy saints, for the insults offered to Thy Vicar and to the priestly order, for the neglect of the Sacrament of Divine love or its profanation by horrible sacrileges, and lastly for the public sins of nations which resist the rights and the teaching authority of the Church which Thou hast instituted.

Would that we could wash away these crimes with our own blood! And now, to make amends for the outrage offered to the Divine honor, we offer to Thee the same satisfaction which Thou didst once offer to Thy Father on the Cross and which Thou dost continually renew on our altars, we offer this conjoined with the expiations of the Virgin Mother and of all the Saints, and of all pious Christians, promising from our heart that so far as in us lies, with the help of Thy grace, we will make amends for our own past sins, and for the sins of others, and for the neglect of Thy boundless love, by firm faith, by a pure way of life, and by a perfect observance of the Gospel law, especially that of charity; we will also strive with all our strength to prevent injuries being offered to Thee, and gather as many as we can to become Thy followers. Receive, we beseech Thee, O most benign Jesus, by the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Reparatrix, the voluntary homage of this expiation, and vouchsafe, by that great gift of final perseverance, to keep us most faithful until death in our duty and in Thy service, so that at length we may all come to that fatherland, where Thou with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God for ever and ever. Amen.

Note: From the great Pius XI released in 1928 in Miserentissimus Redemptor

A partial indulgence may be granted to the faithful who recite publicly this prayer, on condition of confession, Communion, and prayerful intentions of the Holy Father. (Handbook of Indulgences, 4th edition, 1999).

ACT OF THANKSGIVING

O Divine Heart of Jesus we thank Thee for Thy great grace and mercy in choosing our community to receive the legacy of Thy love by transforming it into a sanctuary of reparation and atonement.

Divine Savior, we, the least among Thy children, bow down in silent adoration before Thee.

We thank Thee for dwelling in our midst; we salute Thee, we thirst after Thee, the ever lasting Fount of living waters. Humbly we beg of Thee, "Stay with us, Lord." May this house be to Thee a second Bethany where Thou mayest rest among those who have chosen the better part.

Stay with us Lord, for as in Nazareth's lowly home, we too honor the Holy Mother Thou Thyself hast giving us. Dispel from our hearts, through Thy Holy Presence, all sorrow and discouragement.

Stay with us, for perhaps the darkness of trial is about to come upon us. Stay with us, for night cometh! The world strives to envelop us / in the shadows of unbelief, but we want to be faithful to Thee, for Thou alone art the Way, the Truth, and the Life! / O Divine Jesus, we beg Thee let Thy Word be fulfilled, "Today salvation has come to this house!"

Stay with us, O Thou our Lord and Master. Take up Thy abode with us that we may grow in Thy love. Thou art our King and we would serve Thee alone. Help us to become saints and through sanctity, spread love for Thee among all those entrusted to our care.

May the triumphant, loving Heart of Jesus, be praised, loved and glorified in this parish and our homes, now and always. Amen!

The Twelve Promises of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary for those devoted to His Sacred Heart:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their families.
3. I will console them in all their troubles.
4. They shall find in My Heart an assured refuge during life and especially at the hour of their death.
5. I will pour abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in My Heart the source of an infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall speedily rise to great perfection.
9. I will bless the homes where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the power of touching the most hardened hearts.
11. Those who propagate this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart, never to be effaced.

12. The all-powerful love of My Heart will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the First Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under my displeasure, nor without receiving their Sacraments; My heart shall be their assured refuge at that last hour.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
Have mercy on us. Immaculate
Heart of Mary Pray for us.
